

EXHIBIT C

3. The terms “You,” “Your,” and “Broadcom” means Broadcom Inc., its predecessors, predecessors-in-interest, successors, successors-in-interest, affiliated entities, including all divisions and subsidiaries, and the officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, and representatives, including all other Persons or entities acting or purporting to act on behalf of it.

4. The term “Brocade” means Brocade Communications Systems LLC, its predecessors, predecessors-in-interest, successors, successors-in-interest, affiliated entities, including all divisions and subsidiaries, and the officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, and representatives, including all other Persons or entities acting or purporting to act on behalf of it.

5. The term “Extreme” means Extreme Networks, Inc., its predecessors, predecessors-in-interest, successors, successors-in-interest, affiliated entities, including all divisions and subsidiaries, and the officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, accountants, and representatives, including all other Persons or entities acting or purporting to act on behalf of it.

6. The term “License Agreement” shall mean the License Agreement, dated March 10, 2001, as amended, between Brocade Communications Systems LLC and SNMP Research International, Inc.

7. The term “SNMP Research Software” means any of the following: (i) software provided by SNMP Research to Brocade, (ii) software licensed by SNMP Research to Brocade, or (iii) any software created by SNMP Research which is or was in the possession of Brocade and/or Broadcom. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SNMP Research Software does not include software rightfully distributed to a Broadcom customer under the Amended and Restated Key Distribution Agreement between SNMP Research International, Inc. and Broadcom Corporation effective as of February 21, 2019, for which it is undisputed that all license fees and royalties are fully paid. The foregoing categories include Source Code, compiled code, binary code, configuration files and data, associated documentation, and Derivative Works thereof.

8. The term “Source Code” means documents that reflect human-readable text written using a computer programming language that are nominally capable of being used to generate an executable software program.

9. The term “Derivative Work” means (i) any program or documentation in Source Code form or binary form which (A) has been or is developed by Broadcom through the use of SNMP Research Software, or (B) includes any features, provisions, algorithms, or other portions of SNMP Research Software, or (ii) derivative works as defined in the Copyright Act.

10. The unqualified term “Person” shall mean an individual, corporation, firm, company, sole proprietorship, partnership, unincorporated association, business association, or governmental entity.

11. The term “Product” means each item that can be or has at any time been able to be separately ordered or distributed or provided as an update to an existing Product, whether sold, leased, licensed, sublicensed, whether enabled or not, whether revenue bearing or not, including, but not limited to, hardware, software, services, or combinations of hardware, software, or services.

12. “And” and “or” each shall be construed either conjunctively or disjunctively as necessary to bring within the scope of these requests for admission any information or document that might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope.

13. References to the plural shall include the singular; references to the singular shall include the plural.

14. References to the feminine shall include the masculine; references to the masculine shall include the feminine.

15. The requests below incorporate the above definitions without regard to the capitalization used in connection with the terms defined unless otherwise specified in each respective request.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. A request should not be limited to a specific time frame unless specifically so stated in the request.

2. In answering these requests, please furnish all information, however obtained, including hearsay which is available to You, and information known by or in the possession of any parent, subsidiary, division, subdivision, affiliated company, licensee, predecessor, or successor, and any of Your or their present or former officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, representatives, and those Persons in active concert or participation with, or acting or purporting to act on its (or their) behalf.

3. If You contend that the answer to any request is privileged or otherwise immune from discovery in whole or in part, please describe in detail all facts supporting such privilege or immunity, and describe each Person having knowledge of the factual basis upon which the privilege or immunity is asserted.

4. If You object to any portion or subpart of any request or object to providing certain information requested, state Your objection, basis for objection, specifically Identify the respect in which the request is allegedly objectionable, and answer any unobjectionable portion(s) or subpart(s) of the request for information and/or supply the unobjectionable information requested.

5. In their motion to dismiss, Brocade Communications Systems LLC and Broadcom Inc. represented that “Broadcom Inc. is a parent holding company and not a sales operating entity, and thus does not sell or engage in any Product development containing the software at issue in this case” Dkt. 40-1 at 10. In all requests below which refer to Broadcom, the requests seek information that includes Broadcom Inc. as well as any entity that Broadcom Inc., as a purported “holding company,” holds any interest, direct or indirect, and any company which Broadcom Inc. serves as a direct or indirect “parent.” When responding to any request in which a complete and truthful answer would encompass any such entity(ies), please include and Identify the entity(ies).
